

School Newsletter

Thursday 5th July 2018

What a week! Thank you all for the huge support over the last couple of days during the Ofsted inspection. We will have to wait for the report to be out before we are able to discuss the outcomes; however, we can share there were no surprises. We hope that the report is ready before the summer holidays.

After our newsletter last week, I know that many members of the school community contacted Sir Oliver Letwin, our MP. I am pleased to say that he has responded and arranged to visit the school to meet and discuss the financial challenges we face.

Thank you for your continued support.

Laura Cornish

Reports

Unfortunately, reports will be delayed due to the events of this week. We are now planning to send reports out next week.

PTFA Relaunch Meeting

We had a successful PTFA meeting last week and now have a full committee. We look forward to sharing more information about the relaunched PTFA.

After School Club

Unfortunately, we have not had enough interest to be able to start an after school club at the moment. We have started contacting external providers in order to explore every option.

Production—Pirates Versus Mermaids

What a fantastic production! It would not have been the same without the dedication of so many who have gave time, effort and talent. Thank you to everyone who has been involved. It was wonderful to see the confidence of the children as they stood together on the stage in their incredible costumes.
